Community Players' President's Message

Welcome to Community Players' third production of the 2023-24 season, Vanya and Sonia and Masha and Spike.

I know you will enjoy this funny and thought provoking show. Thanks to Sharon Benchoff and her cast and crew for bringing this story to life.

We will be performing a show at Community Players on April 26-28, The Harlem Renaissance: A Celebration of the Arts. We look forward to seeing you in the audience for the final show of this season — Kiss Me, Kate, which will be performed at Wicomico High School on June 21-23. Tickets are available at our website, sbyplayers.org.

If you are not getting our regular email blasts, you can sign up at <http://eepurl.com/hpth1T>. We won't sell your address nor overwhelm you with lots of emails.

Director's Message

Hello. I'm so pleased to see you in the audience. It is gratifying to see so many familiar faces as well as new.

I submitted Vanya and Sonia and Masha and Spike to the Board for inclusion in this season's productions because I found it witty and funny and that you, our audience, would see the humor in the actions and lines of the characters. My theory is that the audience will laugh more if they can see themselves, or someone they know, in the characters. These everyday characters (people) are thrown into circumstances, sometimes absurd circumstances, and how they react or what they say brings on hilarity.

Here is a quote from the playwright Christopher Durang: "Keep it simple and make it oddly believable," "Treat it as if they meant what they said. It is both funnier and 'deeper' that way."

The play won a Tony for best play, so I'm not the only one who thinks this play is a hoot and touching. I sincerely hope you will connect with the humor in the play, as well as the set.

We (Players) do what we do for you, and we love to see and hear you enjoy our voluminous hours of work. Sudden outbursts of laughter and belly laughs are encouraged.

Synopsis

Middle-aged siblings Vanya and Sonia share a home in Bucks County, PA, where they bicker and complain about the circumstances of their lives. Suddenly, their movie-star sister, Masha, swoops in with her new boy toy, Spike. Old resentments flare up, eventually leading to threats to sell the house. Also on the scene are sassy maid Cassandra, who can predict the future, and a lovely young aspiring actress named Nina, whose prettiness somewhat worries the imperious Masha.

Who's Who Behind the Scenes

Sharon Benchoff (Director/Set Designer) began her love of theatre as a child, accompanying her mom to play rehearsals. She remembers her first job as director, The Princess and the Pea, in fourth grade. Sharon likes to think her teacher saw her raw theatrical abilities, but it was probably that Sharon was extremely bossy even at the age of ten. In high school Sharon trod the boards as an actor, but during college she discovered she was a much better Techie than actor and concentrated on the off-stage side of productions. After Sharon obtained her degree in Speech and Theater from Salisbury State College (yes, before it was a university), she became a member of Players. For over 40 years she has designed lighting for numerous productions, including Jekyll & Hyde, Chicago, The Wizard of Oz and Into the Woods. Directing credits include Wait Until Dark, Laughing Stock, Tom, Dick & Harry, Moon Over Buffalo, Calendar Girls, Les Misérables and Jesus Christ Superstar. Born in southern Pennsylvania, Sharon had a clear vision in her mind of what the morning room of the family home in Bucks County, PA., where this play takes place, would look like. The dialogue gave the basis of how this sunroom would be decorated. Sharon wishes to thank her extremely talented actors, crew, production team, and set construction team for making her job as director and designer an absolute pleasure.

Darrell Mullins (Producer) has played lead roles in a number of Players' productions such as Annie, Last of the Red Hot Lovers, The Odd Couple, The Man Who Came to Dinner, and Death of a Salesman. He has also directed many productions including Hello, Dolly!, Brighton Beach Memoirs, Chicago, and The Dining Room. His most recent director's credit was Little Women, the Musical. He is grateful to Sharon Benchoff for giving him the opportunity to try a new role, that of producer.

“Special Thanks” for the help

A big thanks to our Patrons and Advertisers for their unwavering support over our 87 years.

We also thank those individuals who contributed to this production, but we have inadvertently omitted them.

Cass Dasher (Stage Manager) currently serves as a member of the board for Community Players and has been involved in the technical side of theater since joining the stage crew for Addams Family in 2015. Previous shows they have Stage Managed include Matilda: the Musical, The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, and Crimes of the Heart, among others. By day, Cass works for the Worcester County Library and also serves on the board of Salisbury PFLAG. Cass wishes to thank Sharon for allowing them to be part of this great production, Mom for introducing them to the world of theater, and their partner Alyssa for her constant support, as always.

Kim Cuesta (Costumes/Props) thrilled be costuming this wonderful cast, as well as making and procuring props. Kim has had a number of roles, both on stage and behind the scenes, with The Community Players of Salisbury and Possum Point Players in Delaware. Favorite shows include Calendar Girls, The Dining Room, and Social Security. When Kim isn't at the theatre, she enjoys her career as a pathologist and being Mom to her two wonderful daughters. Kim thanks you, our audience, for coming out to support the arts, and her husband, Peter, and mom, Kay, for their endless support.

Emily Lawson (Sound) is happy to be working once again behind the scenes for this production. Emily has enjoyed helping with set construction, as well.

David Allen (Lighting) has been with Players for years and still enjoys working on the shows. He has served in almost all technical aspects but also has appeared in a few (by accident or on purpose). One of his favorite on-stage roles was the Fisherman rowing his boat across stage in The Wizard of Oz in the Tornado scene while running the wind-mill special effect. He trusted the two stage crew members not to push into to the orchestra pit.

Ken Johnson (Set Construction Supervisor) teaches Musical Theatre for Wicomico County Schools and can't think of a better way to spend his days than with the multi-talented students in his classes. He began his "career" with Players almost 40 years ago, running a follow spot for Don't Drink the Water, and we haven't been able to get rid of him since! Bert in Mary Poppins and Lumière in Beauty & the Beast are two of his favorite roles out of scores. Ken has directed several productions for Players, most recently, The Addams Family, Into the Woods, Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, Matilda, and Noises Off. Ken has also designed and built the sets and/or lighting for over 50 Players' productions. He thanks Yoshi and his friends at Players for allowing him to continue this "hobby".

Rusty Mumford (Make-up and Hair) has been a member of Community Players for almost 40 years, having held every office in the organization (except treasurer) and having taken part in almost every show, on stage or backstage. He has directed numerous productions for Players, the first being The Odd Couple (Female Version) in 1991 and, most recently, Singin' in the Rain last season. On stage, Rusty has appeared in many productions, including his favorites Jekyll & Hyde (Lord Reginald Kensington), Rumors (Ken), Harvey (Elwood P. Dowd), Social Security (David Kahn), and Christmas Carol (Scrooge/Dickens). He gives love to his family, especially Becky (and the other two P's), and Joanne. Thanks for believing in me!
