Community Players' President's Message

Hello and welcome to Old Hams!

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I am delighted to welcome you to this production. Community theatre thrives because of people like you—our audience—who continue to support, encourage, and celebrate the performing arts in our community.

Old Hams is a joyful tribute to the love of theatre itself—the friendships, the memories, and, yes, the occasional drama both onstage and off. It reminds us that no matter how long we've been involved in theatre, the passion never fades. Whether you are a seasoned performer, a backstage wizard, or someone who simply enjoys a night at the theatre, there is something in this show that will feel wonderfully familiar.

Productions like this one are made possible by the dedication of many volunteers—actors, directors, designers, technicians, and front-of-house staff—who give their time and talents so generously. Their commitment keeps our theatre vibrant and ensures that live performance continues to be a meaningful part of our community.

As you enjoy this performance, I hope you find laughter, nostalgia, and perhaps even a reflection of your own theatrical journey. Thank you for being here and for supporting community theatre.

With appreciation,

Darrell Mullins, President,
Community Players of Salisbury

Director's Message

Greetings and welcome to the Community Players' third main stage production of the season, Old Hams. I first read Old Hams while in Florida and found it to be a light, silly, funny show that felt like The Golden Girls meet Carol Burnett and Friends. It's the story of retired actors and actresses, a psychic, an unscrupulous lawyer, the feisty nurse, and, of course, the young couple who fall in love.

Directing a show is always a challenge, but for this show and this group of people, it has been pure joy. I have enjoyed meeting and working with several new people and bringing back some familiar faces, as well. And, as always, there are SO MANY people that make this happen, from the first audition, to casting, costuming, building, painting, decorating, to the final curtain.

I couldn't possibly thank everyone but please know I appreciate everything you have done and thank each of you from the bottom of my heart.

I hope you, our audience, have as much fun watching this little comedy as we had bringing it to you... Thank you for your continued support of the local community theater and the arts.

Enjoy!!

Synopsis

The Ophelia L. Davis Home for Actors, Musicians and Singers is a 1920's manor in 21st century Burbank, CA. Its residents, who have called it home for 40 years, all worked in film, radio or TV. They include two sisters, a leading man who could never remember his lines, a man of 999 faces, and a mystic who hasn't had a correct vision in years!

Their friend and former owner of the home, Ophelia Davis, died, leaving the older performers in a terrible predicament. The taxes are due and if they can't be raised, the son of Ophelia's attorney, Ben, will sell the house so he can make millions when the land is used for a shopping mall.

At wit's end, the performers turn to Ophelia's granddaughter and Ben's nephew for help. Using all their acting skills, some clever disguises, and a missing lottery ticket, they manage to turn a garage sale into a hilarious showdown. It makes for a fun-filled and unexpected ending. The strong characters and plot make this show memorable for both actors and audiences!

Who's Who in the Cast

Robin Burns (Rose Blume) is thrilled to be back on stage after a long hiatus! If you've been seeing our shows for a while, you may remember her from Death of a Salesman (Linda Loman), Deathtrap (Helga ten Dorp), or Love, Loss, and What I Wore. Robin is happily retired and keeps busy playing pickleball and watching her granddaughter. She would like to thank Sherri and this talented cast for making this such a fun experience. Special thanks goes to her husband Joe for his support and endless help learning lines.

Bobbie Calloway (Iris) has been a member of Community Players for over 45 years. She enjoys being off stage as well as on. But on stage is always exciting. Some of her favorite shows have been South Pacific, Sound of Music, Fiddler, Calendar Girls, On Golden Pond, Leading Ladies, Senior Follies, FoxFire, and Blithe Spirit. She would like to thank Sherri for the chance to bring Iris to life in this show.

Pete Evans (Ben McAllister, Jr.) is delighted to be back onstage again performing in this very funny show. A veteran of many Players' productions, including Moon Over Buffalo, The Addams Family, Blithe Spirit, Beauty And The Beast, and Leading Ladies, he is excited to work with many of his favorite co-stars and meeting several new ones. He was last seen as Lady Bracknell in Players' The Importance of Being Earnest. He's grateful to be wearing pants this time around.

Who's Who in the Cast

Capri Harrison (Madame Clara Voyant) grew up in Ohio where she participated in High School plays and Community Theater (that was 40 years ago). After working and raising a family, Capri is now retired and has found a home with Salisbury Community Players. She has performed in I Hate Hamlet (Lillian Troy) and Annie (chorus). The part of Clara in Old Hams is so much fun. Enjoy the show!

Robert Herbertson (Eddie Chambers) is delighted to be appearing again with the Community Players following his debut last year in The Importance of Being Earnest. Favorite roles include John-nypateenmike in The Cripple of Inishmaan, Charlie Clench in One Man, Two Guvnors (both for Maryland Ensemble Theatre), Robert E. Lee in Killer Angels (Heritage Theatre), Giles St. James in You Say Tomatoes (Ottawa Little Theatre), and Col. Thomas McKean in 1776 (Landless Theatre.) With thanks as always to Beth for her unflinching love and support.

Lillian Hoffman (Nurse Louise Crockett) is the Director of Bands at Wicomico Middle School. As a music educator for 21 years, She has always loved the performing arts and holds a great passion for theatre. Her previous Players' productions include Chicago, Oliver, Guys & Dolls, Annie and I Hate Hamlet. Lillian thanks God for the many blessing she has received and is profoundly grateful to her husband Robin for his love and support. Big thanks to Sherri for giving her this opportunity. She feels blessed to be surrounded by such a talented cast. "No Coffee!"

Who's Who in the Cast

Jim King (Radio Announcer) has enjoyed being involved with Community Players for over 50 years and is thrilled to be a part of Old Hams. Somehow it seems fitting that he was included and as the radio announcer! His favorite role was Fagin in Oliver (the first one) and was last seen in A Streetcar Named Desire.

Frank Pasqualino (Gus Hall) is very excited to be making his stage debut with the Community Players of Salisbury. Frank has been very active in the past, directing and working with Ocean Pines Players and various theatre groups in the DC area. Frank also enjoys directing Children's Theatre, having directed numerous shows for Encore Stage and Studio and Mount Vernon Community Children's Theatre. Some of Frank's directorial credits include Harvey, To Kill a Mockingbird, The Game's Afoot, The Foreigner, Love, Sex, and the IRS; and, in 2007, he directed the Washington area premiere of Intimate Apparel for the Little Theatre of Alexandria, which won the Ruby Griffith award for "Outstanding Achievement in a Play", and for which he also personally received a Washington Areas Theatres Community Honors (WATCH) nomination for Best Director. Frank was last seen on stage in Port City Playhouse's production of Black Hole. Frank wishes to thank his family, especially his wife Donna for all her love, support, and encouragement; Bruce, I know you are watching, too.

Who's Who Behind the Scenes

Lynne Bratten (Costumer) has created and coordinated costumes for Players since 1984. Recent productions include Guys and Dolls, Little Women, Streetcar Named Desire, Matilda, South Pacific, Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, Drowsy Chaperone, Into the Woods, Calendar Girls, I Hate Hamlet, Jesus Christ Superstar and many others. She is thrilled to manage the ever-expanding costume collection for Community Players and to serve the organization as a member of board of directors as the vision of our own theater is becoming a reality. She wants to thank Sheri for the opportunity to work with this talented and energetic group of folks and for allowing her to bring Costume Assistants, Edith and Mary Tusing, into the costuming process.
